¶Great is the Lord, greatly to be praised (2x)

Father you reign

Great are you Lord, greatly to be praised

Father you reign¶

¶Heaven and earth adore you, angels bow before you

You are beautiful¶

¶Beautiful you are, wonderful you've been, you are glorious

Faithful in all your ways, my help and my rewards

You are glorious¶

(Prayer of thanksgiving)

¶Jesus we enthrone you, we proclaim you are king

Standing here in the midst of all

We lift you high with our praise

And as we worship, build your throne (3x)

Come Lord Jesus and take your place¶

Brothers and Sisters, Please understand these things I listed below:

- There is a formula for impact
- There is a formula for carrying heavy-weight of the presence of God
- There is a formula for affecting a generation

And what is happening to you is the building that will lead to that; you are satisfying that condition and you may not look like it now, but soon enough, you will see the beauty and glory of God arise in your life.

(Prayer: Father, do something upon my mind, I allow you to flow through me, let my mind not have a limitation to my destiny, you have given me a voice that my generation must hear and everything that constitutes limitations must leave)

The limitation of the impact of men is not the power or the ability of God, but from the realms where we put our wills and emotions, intellect to come under submission of the governance of Christ and that when we can satisfactorily do that, there is no limit to which God will be able to use us.

Proverbs 23 vs. 7

¶ You make all things new and I will follow you forward ¶

God has no favorite in the kingdom, He loves everyone in the kingdom equally, but he does not trust everyone equally. The operation of God, when you read the bible, makes it look as though God has a soft spot for certain people and he seems to reject others.

Until you understand the character of the operation of the kingdom, you may think God has favorites. God has no favorite preachers, businessmen, students, history makers. Every man is saddled with the responsibility of charting the course of his destiny. And to the degree to which we come into the alignment with God precepts, is the degree to which it looks like God is tilting towards our direction.

We live in a society that the difference is clear in everything.

- Among preachers the difference is clear. There are men of God struggling to make an impact, to do ministry.
- In the world of finance, there are those making impact and there are those that it seems God hate them
- In the world of family lives, there are some raising award-winning children, there are others raising armed robbers, cowards and thieves constituting nuisance to the society

- In the world of impact, there are those that the hand of God is mighty upon, shaking lands and territories and there are others scrambling for relevance

What is responsible for this difference? Could it be that God decided to choose others or that he hated others? What could be responsible for a man who rises as nobody, a global phenomenon? Where people begin to thank God on your behalf and bless the womb you came from.

What makes the difference that a man will be made pauper and at the end of his life he is a generational blessing, his name becomes an access key to favor.

It is not enough just to love God, know him, and pray in tongues, a true apostolic ministry prepares people to be agents of societal transformation. There is a level of impact and illumination that comes from the church.

The key to world evangelization is not necessarily evangelism as we know; not one on one way of sharing tracts. The key to trans-generational impact and bringing territory to the submission of Christ is hidden in one word –influence

Influence refers to the mystery word that holds the key to compelling generation to come to the lordship of Christ. Influence would do more than tract and crusade would do.

At every given point in your life, your decision, your values are been altered by someone you look unto as your role model, consciously and unconsciously, therefore the key to bringing our territory to the obedience of Christ is ascending intentionally to a position of kingdom influence that grants us access to the minds of people and by our influence, they can buy into our ideology which seeks to enthrone Christ as King- this is the gospel.

The gospel is not just a message that saves sinners, but it is an ideology that seeks to enthrone Christ and his purpose. First, that spiritual kingdom in the heart of men, then the influence of his jurisdiction across the strata of society. If we are not doing this, there is no reason why we should be alive. No matter what kind of conference, convention, impartation, if it does not lead to influencing people to seek Christ then it is a waste. In summary, this is called “Kingdom Advancement”- the intentional strategic fortifying of the influence of Christ on the earth.

This is consistent with the eternal plan of God- that all things be held up in Christ. Mankind and creation will come to the submission of Christ by a principle called “The reflection principle” – an entity confers power on another and as a proof of his power and his anointing. The mystery of the sun and the moon; the moon does not have the glory of its own; it reflects the glory of the sun.

If you want to see the excellency of the brightness of the sun, you look at the moon. The degree, to which the moon aligns with the sun, is the degree to which it shines.

Christianity is not just a religion to keep you busy until Jesus comes or until you get a job, graduate, or get married. It is an ideology. God has an intension in his heart and expects every inhabitant of the earth to be given an opportunity to understand that. His emphasis right now is building his spiritual kingdom in the heart of men, and that’s what we call being born again- the establishment of the reign and the rule of Christ in the heart of men.

Not just coming for altar calls, it’s not enough to get you born again, it gets you saved. But to be born again, born anew, and be transformed, Christ needs to be established in your heart.

The degree to which the word of God finds expression in your life, to which you have submitted to the principles of the kingdom, is the degree to which Jesus has become Lord of your life. There are two major limitations to the advancement of the kingdom; first, the gate of hell – defines the scope of Satan and every arsenal that he brings; his tricks, strategy that he uses to bring the whole world into deception. The biggest of all limitations is the mind -our mental alignment to the ways of the kingdom. This is what is responsible for your prosperity, impact, and flow of God's power.

Preachers have erroneously taught people about the mind, they shift the term to business people and entrepreneurs, proprietors, and those who have to do with corporate life. Believing they are training their spirits.

The mind is the access point for the spirit to find expression in your life. When you ignore the mental development, alignment of your mind to the governance of the Christ, you will fail in life in every respect.

You cannot be changed unless your mind is changed and until your ideology is altered. This is because your life revolves around your thinking, perception about life. You cannot change your situation until you are ready to submit your mind to something better.

Proverbs 23 vs. 7a For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: This equates the summation of your ideologies to the quality of your life. Meaning the quality of my life as an ambassador of the kingdom, as a husband, father, leader is dependent on the sum total of the ideologies that inform my decisions.

A man's life is helplessly at the mercy of his mindset. The key to persuasion is repetition, not information. When truth is repeated, it becomes a priority to you.

¶God is doing a mighty work in your life
God is transforming mighty men in this place
He won't stop, he won't stop, till you look just like him¶

Thousands have been connected to the grace in your life and your refusal to rise, will make thousands go to hell and millions to perish. Imagine if there were no great men of God, all mighty men that have brought impact to this generation did not rise.

The training process is always difficult because mankind have been designed to live in a comfort zone, we are designed to live around an environment that massages our current level, but every time the word begins to come, the first thing that happens is that your current mentality will resist it, because it knows that it will have to choose to accept that it is wrong and change. And accepting faults is one of the biggest ego-stinging thing for mankind. Therefore we prefer to excuse it away and remain where we are.

Friends live together as long as they think together. The moment one begins to think above, the environment begins to drive him away.

A mentor is not your friend. There are three spiritual platforms on which reception and impartation happens.;

1. A father and a son platform
2. A transfer from a mentor to a mentee or an apprentice
3. A transfer from a teacher to a student

You cannot transfer knowledge from colleague to colleague; it's against the law of impartation. That means every time you want to receive, one must assume the position of the greater and another, the lesser, even if it is for the purpose of impartation. Society will teach you otherwise, that is why there are a lot of failures out there. To what degree are we willing to submit to the will of God?

Every time we come to God, many of us come with our bag of errors and we sit, hoping that God will add to us. Sometimes he doesn't need to add, he needs to take from you because what you currently have is what is destroying you, it is an ideology that is resisting the power of God in your life.

There is an ideology that is resisting the move of the Spirit, limiting your financial life, limiting your ministry and every aspect of your life. And when you contend for light and receive that light, no power in existence has the capacity to keep you down, not for too long.

I study culture a lot, to see the way of life of people, how they think, their priority, what constitutes taboo for them, the scope of their ideology. And I am amazed. I see the reason why Africa is where it is, why very few men, out of a large crowd ever touch the true grace of God in their lives. While many go to school, they end up being failures from the perspective of the kingdom, failures in imparting their generation and been relevant for the kingdom.

I see why zealous people will start out well and end as if God left them.

There is something that we consistently prioritize, and that is the power of transformation.

You can rise from where you are, stop regretting what you are going through and what your parents brought you into, concentrate on the transformation that will bring you up, otherwise you will sit in that position of regret and watch your children later join you. That is what has happened.

We have a generation of irresponsible people spiritually, physically, and mentally. There has been a trans-generational game of blaming people; one generation blaming another for their failures; Nigerians blame the government, Africans blame their parents, they blame institutions. Our refusal to turn and say what can I do to leave where I am?

Gideon was a little boy who was hiding, he has heard of the miracles that happen and now he was there reduced and an angel appeared to him and says oh thou mighty man of valor can you be the changer of this pattern in Israel.

(Prayer:

1. In the name of Jesus, I take full responsibility for my current position, spiritually, socially, and I am willing to pay the price to change that pattern
2. In the name of Jesus, I refuse resentment through blaming people, I make up my mind, that as from today, I take full responsibility, for the outcome of everything in my life.

There are many people who blame their parents for their not serving God, but what of the mercy of God that has brought you to see the light? Many ladies believe it is the wrong training of their mother that has stopped them from marriage. Many pastors in many ministries believe that the reason why they are not rising is because the man of God is not laying hands on them to do impartation.

3. Lord, I make up my mind, willingly and consciously before heaven that this day I begin to take full responsibility for the outcome of my life

If any change will happen it depends on you and God, if your generations must hear you it depends on you and God.

Never try to waste your time investing in people who have not come to a point where they are willing to take responsibility for their lives; you will be casting your pearl before swine.

Never waste your time and energy attempting to communicate truth to people who have not indicated a genuine passion for transformation. Your ideology becomes a template for interpreting life.

Your mindset determines your response to God, to people, to Satan, to challenges and success. The Bible keeps telling us about Solomon, encouraging believers of a need to guard our hearts. Proverbs 4 vs. 23 keep your heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life

Keep your heart -it is your responsibility- with all diligence, for out of your ideologies are the issues, the decision that frames your life and destiny.

- Your mindset about culture
- Your mindset about women
- Your mindset about God
- Your mindset about money and prosperity
- Your mindset about increase
- Your mindset about hard work and diligence

Wishing has never changed the life of anyone; it only gives you a false emotional consolation.

Difference between a decision and a wish – Consider this scenario;

“I want to drink water” – this is a wish

“I decide to drink water” – this means I set it as a goal and I am ready to find out what it takes to get that water.

A decision is different from a desire, in that a decision is backed up with the willingness to satisfy the conditions to get that result. Many people wish for anointing, big church, million-dollar status.

(Declaration -I decide to make an impact, I decide to make an impact, I decide to do big things for the kingdom)

Guard your heart with all diligence, why? because your life is a reflection of your ideology.

The law of manifestation explains that your physical ability eventually becomes a reflection of your mindset. The inner working of your mind is what will eventually become your physical reality. That means your physical life is a revelation of the summation or the quality of your ideologies.

- Your mentality about prosperity will show physically
- Your mentality about God and the principles of the kingdom will show
- Your mentality about marriage will show
- Your mentality about success and productivity will speak.

Meaning, our physical environment right now is the gradual reflection of the reality in our minds.

Compare a CEO of a company that sits down in a large intimidating office and the poor people working for him in the office(for example the gateman), calling him wicked man, saying he is the one enjoying. Convincing themselves the CEO is not fair, just sitting doing nothing other than sign papers.

Here is the challenge let these two sets of people switch positions just for two months, the CEO at the gate will try to improve the scenario while the gateman transferred to the office will be carried away with the luxury and pleasure he finds in the office. He sits and eats forgetting that the progress of that company is at the mercy of his decisions. And after two months, so many things have gone haywire. Meanwhile, the CEO has changed the gate post into something different and wonderful. What is their difference? – mindset.

When you see a man mightily used by God, his mind is a reflection of something. When you see a man considered to be anointed or blessed, do not envy what you see, try to buy into their mind, and transfer it into yourself and your life will follow suit.

That is why success is transferable. If I can transfer to you what is in my mind, you will be like me but you will stop at my limit. If I can transfer to you what I have and challenge you to rise higher, you will be higher than me.

Preachers preach out of the abundance of their mindsets. For instance, a preacher, who is not an entrepreneur and knows nothing about leadership and organization, has a pattern that he teaches people. All he will tell people, is to pray and be serious, that the God of favour, will locate them, and the people shout “amen” and that’s it. and what happens is that the congregation overtime, will constitute of weak and beggarly people.

The preacher himself does not know why he is successful, he thinks it’s because he preaches.

There are some people that do not have friends, there is a particular mindset you have that drives destiny helpers away from your life. Something about you resents people from your life and if you do not take time and change, then it is left to you.

Mental attitudes that have sponsor failures in the lives of people

1. Low self-esteem(complex) – this is the feeling or mindset that brings a man to a position where he believes or convinced consciously or subconsciously, that he is not good enough, perpetually at a stage of disadvantage, that there always something he needs to do to his life to meet up to standard, a status quo. It is a terrible mindset, terrible mental state of being because it produces dangerous fruits.

The foolishness of many people in the society, from preachers to businessmen, to fathers, to leaders is motivated by this poisonous mindset—subtle but dangerous, low self-esteem.

When low self-esteem is matured in a man, it becomes a sponsor for an extravagant life, aggression, looking down on people, sponsor for downplaying people, as a way of trying to show your relevance. So all the fights for title, recognition, impatience that drives people into living an extravagant life is primarily because of a deep-seated mentality of low self-esteem.

So a lady believes that until she plaits a particular type of hair, she can't be beautiful and guys will not see her. She then finds out that that weave-on is #15,000 and that becomes a goal for her, so she tries to impress people by borrowing money to buy the weave-on, and then she feels that she has attained a status quo.

We have preachers with their clubs and societies that are based on something they have to do to match up. So a man of God thinks that “I can teach but I can't prophesy”, and his complex needs to sponsor him to look for prophetic grace anyhow even to the point of witchcraft and when he gets it, he know believe that when the prophetic grace adds to it, he will be like a particular man of God. This is what is responsible for the hatred of brothers and sisters, fathers, and mothers. A father will fight with his wife because the father believes that he is an assistant director to a woman that is CEO, therefore his complex makes him feel he needs to do something to bring her down.

Low self-esteem, a mindset that stops people from moving towards success gradually, it has been the reason for incessant impatience, especially in young people – they want to marry now, buy a car now, start a ministry, and within few months, have crowd up to five thousand members.

Many of us have lost precious friends because of low self-esteem, our low self-esteem help us to interpret even a sincere compliment from a negative angle because you believe that you must do something to match up.

There are many preachers who for recognition want to start going on air, even when the grace to go on air has not been released. So the resources to back it up are not there, and they keep yoking their members week after week.

There are businessmen who just start a business and want to start an international business when it's not yet time and they go and die in some foreign country.

There are some ladies that believe they have to behave in some certain way to show that they are not cheap

You can decide to make up your mind and change or live in that fool-sense of success

Borrowing several things – shoes, bag, wrist-watch, cars – to prove a fake life. If that becomes the whole circumference upon which your life revolves around, it's a shame.

Sometimes we make ourselves look too cheap and so we do not celebrate what we are and where we are, we do not celebrate what God is doing in our lives, we rush levels, we are not thorough in the dealings of God in our lives and we end up with casualties. Lies upon lies, precepts upon precepts.

That lifestyle of inferiority right now is what has made some people not to relate with certain friends that can help them because you think these people are villagers that you do not want to associate with because of your “levels”

(Prayer: In the name of Jesus, I am proud of my level, I will rise gradually, there is no point trying to fake success, I will pay the price and be successful)

Low self-esteem is responsible for gossip, backbiting, it is an attitude that will sponsor you not celebrating the success of others.

2. Uncultured use of the word – Psalm 141 vs. 3 set a watch oh lord before my mouth; keep the door of my lip. There are many people in which the devil of their destinies, that which has chained them and chased them out of their lives is the gate called lip, the gate of uncultured words.

Many of us have killed the dreams of people because we spoke some things to them, turned friends apart because of an uncultured word. Many of us have had witchcraft attack because our mouths introduced us to what we should not say. Everything has been working; all of a sudden it scatters. We put ourselves in trouble because we cannot shut our mouths

You must learn to know when to speak and when to keep quiet. The height of mental maturity in terms of communication is when you know when to speak and when to keep quiet.

The bible says a word, spoken in due season.. there is a due season for communication.

Many people are hated by many because they have joined the heads of too many people including your helpers. Every time they mention your name to lift you, they say God forbid! they rather die than to help you in any form.

It's not enough just to say we want to be successful. When Benny Hinn had his scandal, many people in the body of Christ did not stay to find out what happened, everybody started running him down. The following Sunday

Give yourself a warning and discipline your mouth and tell God to keep it shut when it ought to be shut and to speak when it needs to speak.

Leaders are calm people, they are people who evaluate and look into things because someday, somebody is going to say something about your life, ministry, business.

From the abundance of your heart, your mouth speaks, and then it ruins your life and then you close doors of destiny over your life. Many things have been shut against our lives because of this mindset.

Many preacher messages are not strong on the pulpit because they know you outside the pulpit, know your life of backbiting and gossip and your insincerity in handling the things of the kingdom, so when you say "God bless you", your words are little, they don't carry weight.

These are practical issues that will make your life exceptional. People will look at you and your life, and your ideologies will be compelling and people will ask you what is the framework of your mind and then you will know that the Lord Jesus has transformed your life. You will see jobs that you did not apply for come to you, only because of calmness.

Some preachers, God cannot trust them with innocent people because they cannot hear their cases and keep quiet. There are pastors God cannot trust with large members because the day they know that one of the members is a billionaire, every member of the church will know and they "strangle" him.

In Israel when you curse somebody they will kill you because they understand the importance of words.

Many of us have made ourselves cheap when you started; people respected you because you are a man of few words but now you have become a talkative and now you see that the respect has begun to go down. Value honor more than money, value honor more than reputation; money cannot give you honor but honor will give you blessings.

Honor is the ability to recognize and reward your difference, uncommon principles that will make you exceptional.

This is a re-engineering, re-calibration, changing our perceptions from our various cultural standpoints and connecting us to the attitude of the kingdom, that which make nobles, that which make men wise, that which open cheap doors for greatness

How do I engage in renewing my mind? When I have found out that;

- there is something floored in my life
- I have a poisonous communication
- I'm a bitter and envious person
- I'm a jealous person; negative dimensions of jealousy
- I'm suffering a lot of complexes
- I'm suffering failure and defeat

How do I begin to rise?

1. You must admit and accept that there is a need for transformation in that area of your life- transformation will never come till you are humble enough to accept, there are some people that God has been blessing with financial blessings, but something about their mindset keep throwing out of their lives. There are many who ministerial doors open unto, but people won't call them back, all in the name of mindset.

Many are anointed but cannot reign, because the wisdom that makes for dominion and makes men exceptional, that makes men extraordinary is deficient in our lives.

(Prayer: Lord Jesus, I make up my mind, to make the acquired adjustment for my greatness, I make up my mind to contend for change and contend for adjustment. I make up my mind, to lay aside the old and to pick up the new)

2. The attitude of courtesy (Decorum, respect for people) – that attitude that gives honor/respect. The mindset where you hold people in high esteem is the adjustment that will make the ‘rain’ fall in your life. It will make you a magnet, by and large after; it makes you loveable, inviting. Whether you are higher or lower than that person, that attitude of courtesy is important.

Never usurp your subordinate to prove that you are mighty, you are a fool if you do that. Some of them will be rebellious, but it is a law that cannot be broken, the honor will return to you in a hundred folds.

Learn to be courteous, learn to treat people with honor and respect, greet people.

(Prayer: I receive grace to honor men, to show courtesy)

If somebody offends you, handle the situation in wisdom, don't just hit things in a way that you scatter the opportunity of tomorrow because you are trying to respond to the pain of today.

A businessman will look at you and despite the fact that you don't have the skills but because of courtesy he can give you the chance and you step into favor that you will never recover from.

3. The mentality of endurance- He that endures to the end shall be saved. Many people will never taste the fruit of true success because we gas out, we do not have the staying power. That is why the ministry of prayer is inevitable if you want to finish strong. In your journey to greatness, you will endure, you will endure hardship, misunderstanding, misinterpretation, hunger and make sacrifices.

When you see a blessed man, respect him, don't ever see any man either in the corporate world or ministry that is lifted and trivialize what God has done. Never want my crown, until you see the scars on my hands. Every crown has a scar on the hand. That illusion that greatness will just happen to you is a dream, that illusion that somebody will become successful and you will just enter his success like that is a dream. Realize that if you must be great, your own curriculum of endurance is waiting for you.

Are you willing to endure? Many of us do not want to be talked bad about, but as for success is concerned, it is a cross that every great man must carry.

Never be under pressure to prove your innocence, you can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. Be comforted by the immutability of kingdom laws and do not be under pressure to prove any point.

The truth cannot be hidden for long, keep your sacrifice and endure. Realize that success does not come on a platter of gold. The favor of God does not take away the need for endurance, you will endure hardship, to be prosperous financially you will pay sacrifice, you will make mistakes, you will learn a lot.

To grow in ministry, you will have to learn a lot of lessons through pain, sweat, and blood.

Endure hardship, as a faithful soldier of Christ. A day will come you will be noted for persistence and your critics will become the advocate of your lifting.

When you endure, if you give up, you make the prophecy of your critics true, you make it a self-fulfilling prophecy.

All you need is to keep doing what you are doing, keep praying. Endurance is an irrefutable law of greatness. There is a system in the kingdom, where men pass through the cross to get the crown.

No matter what you are going through, endure and you will see the hand of God in your life. Don't be under pressure to do anything, just endure.

Endure the mockery and shame, never be under any pressure to prove yourself, at any given point in your life, those who love you outweigh those who hate you. Don't because of the few who hate you throw away the honor of millions of people that love you, respect their love.

The mental composition that makes you victorious, with the backup of God's mercy will make you exceptional, notable.

Prayer

1. Lord, I bring my mindset under the lordship of Christ that every mentality in me that is making me think in a way that is inconsistent with the patterns of greatness, I take authority over it.

Guard your heart with all diligence, it is a key

- to your prosperity
- to the increase in anointing
- to the Holy Spirit doing mighty things in your life
- to you been a champion
- to you breaking cultural barriers
- to you being mighty

The name of the mindset for you to have is called 'The mind of Christ'. The resultant effect of this transformation is called the "mind of Christ"; then you become an envoy, a champion, men begin to honor you as if you charm them, everywhere you go you are a magnet. These are the mental requirements of an exceptional life.

Philippians 2 vs. 5 Permit this mind to be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. God is saying "change, I want to make you mighty" irrespective of where you came from. Although you are weak, but let this mind be in you, upgrade your mindset, don't let culture cheat you, don't let your past cheat you.

2. Lord, I reject inferiority and low self-esteem, you have made me great, I'm not cheap, I am not a local champion. I stop trying to do things to prove a point, I stop trying to borrow money to look rich, I stop trying to tell lies to look like I'm making progress, I reject a life of falsehood, I move gradually, level by level.
3. Lord, my mouth has brought too much trouble in my life, it will not continue like this, I set a guard over my mouth, I have gossiped my way to trouble and lied, I've done a lot of things that has destroyed people, I offer my mouth, lips and tongue, from today they become the object of blessings, instruments of lifting.
4. Lord from today, I have respect and honor for all men, regardless of who they are, grant me the grace to demonstrate genuine respect and honor for people higher than me, my contemporaries and even those lower than me.

5. Lord, over what you have called me to do, I will endure, over the preparation, I will endure.
